amount of cost on these judgments. The officers here have tried since last December to collect this cost, and failing, are now about to force payment by placing the judgments in the hands of the Sheriff for levy. If you will kindly inform one of your old subscribers if like action has been taken in any other part of the State, and if so, where, you will greatly oblige yours very truly.

See section 12 of the act of February 20, 1892, which enables persons against whom judgments have been secured to have the judgments satisfied and their coupons taken, provided the costs are paid in money.

These costs are due the county and municipal officers, and presume they are moying to get their money which they.

A certain Michigan congressman, who was in Washington a month ago at his boarding-house, had a visitor one evening about 6 oʻclock who wished to see him at the front door. He did not know the caller, says the Detroit Free Frees.

"Well, sir," he asked, "what can I do for you?"

"I came to interview you on the financial question," was the reply.

"Oh, a newspaper man? Excuse me," and the fattered member of Congress.

"Come right into my room," and before the caller could offer any protest the member of Congress had him inside.

"Here, take something to drink," he wistor took a regular stove-pipe went on, "and make yourself comfortable."

The visitor took a regular stove-pipe slug and made himself comfortable.

"So you want my opinion on the financial situation?" resumed the member of Congress." Well, what do you want to know?"

The visitor, to the surprise of the congressman, got up out of his chair.

"I did want to know," he said, edging over toward the door, "if you could lend me a quarter, but since I got that sing of liquor I don't care a continental whether you do or not. Good evening," and before the member of Congress had recovered from the shock the visitor had departed.
